THE DOLPHIN DID NOT FIRE. No Truth in the Story About the

Clyde Steamer Delaware.

Jacksonville, Fin., Jan. 15. The steam-ship Delaware of the Clyde's Baston, Wil-mington, Charleston and Jacksonville line came to port resterday, having on board Licut Sucherland of the United States dispatch boat Dolphin. The presence of the lientenant on board the steamer is account-ed for by the fact that she was taken for a fillbuster when she appeared off the bar. All grew out of the lighting of a match.

and the officers on the government vesset, ever on the niert to catch any fillbuster niong the Florida coast, flashed her search lights over the waters to learn the mean-ing of the high flame. The light settled on s small rowleat in which was sented a pilot awaiting the arrival of the Delaware to bring her in over the bar. The appearance of a man in a small rowboat at sea at so early an hour excited the suspicious of the officers on board the Dolphin, and the boat and runk were kept under surveillance. When the Dela-ware hove in sight, before daylight, and the pilot boarded her, the circumstances were regarded with even more suspicion. Lieut. Sutherland boarded the Delaware and came on into port with her. Licut. Sutherland was seen during his short visit in this city, and when asked as to the day the Dolphin would come into port replied that he could not say. The ves sel was then waiting for a moraing tide The lieutenant said the officers and men of the man-of-war were very auxious to visit Jacksonville. The Dolphin will await the arrival of the cruiser Newark before coming in, she being subject to the orders of Capt. Nelson of the gruiser. He said that the Newark was expected to arrive off the bar today from Port Royal. Specials sent out from her stating that the Belaware was fired on

HELD FOR ATTEMPTED MURDER

A Man Accused of Shooting at and Wounding His Father-in-Law,

Weilsboro, Pa., Jan 15 - Hornee Cook was lodged in jail here last night for attempting to murder Solomon Adams, his father-in-law. Adams is a farmer, residing near Norwich Ridge, a small hamlet in the northwestern part of this county.

Last Tuesday night be was aroused from his slamber by hearing a noise in the barn. Suspecting that all was not right, Adams dressed and visited the stable, Finding everything in good order, he started to leave the fullding, when he discovered a man conceased behind one of the doors. A scuffle ensued, during which Adams recogmixed the intruder as his non-in-law, with whom he had been on had terms for some

The knowledge that he was recognized evidently enraged Cooke, for he pulled a revolver and fired the weapon at his father-in-law, the bullet knocking out one of the old man's teeth and lodging in his throat. Believing that he was seriously wounded, Adams beat a retreat and attempted to gain the house. He was pursuch by Cooke, who fired two shots at the fleeing man, both bullets lodging in his aty of his assailant to the authorities, but, being informed that he was probably fatally wounded, be implicated Cooke. The affair has created a big sensation at Norwich Ridge, owing to the pronunence of the par ties connected with the shooting.

Wealth in Two Glass Jars, Sharon, Pa., Jan. 15.-J. G. Bastress, a
